These stores taking part in the two-day sale represent a group of progressive merchants exercising the courage, faith and optimism of the Great Leaders. In sponsoring this sale, they are falling in step with President Roosevelt in stimulating business to bring back recovery. This is but a small part of a nation-wide program to restore prosperity.

CARPENTER WITHDRAWS IN FAVOR OF MARSH

In a letter to Loren W. Marsh, candidate for Public Works board, George D. Carpenter this week announced his withdrawal from the fight for that office. This leaves the field to two candidates, Mr. Marsh and Edward T. Ryan, present member who is seeking re-election. The letter from Carpenter, follows:

Confirming my conversation with you in connection with my withdrawal as a candidate for the office of "Member of Board of Public Works" I wish to make this statement.

TOWN MEETING TO TAKE ACTION ON 45 ARTICLES

Bandits Take Cabby For Ride Get $12 Cash

Two bandits, who seemed to enjoy the misery of their taxi driver victim, inveigled him first Tuesday night into what seemed to him an honest taxicab job, robbed him at the point of a lake pistol, and then drove around Arlington with him a prisoner in the back seat.

The two men summoned William Bowler's cab to Tufts st and Broadway. They asked to be taken to Lake st in East Arlington, and at that point directed him, as any passenger would, to drive into Pond View rd.

When Bowler stopped he found a pistol shoved into his back and at their demand handed over all his cash, $12. He was then directed to move into the rear seat. One of the bandits sat at his side and the other took the wheel on what seemed a pleasure ride.

The bandit at the wheel backed up, drove into Lake st, into Pleasant, and up Gray. Then they turned into Highland ave, off Gray st, and dumped the cab owner at Ravine st. The cab later was found abandoned not far from this spot and in the back police investigators found an imitation pistol.

Holdup Pair Sorry
The two holdup men who robbed Bowler, telephoned the Symmes Arlington Hospital in solicitude later to inquire as to his condition. The holdup men said he was one of the men who had held up Bowler and wanted to know how he was getting along.

Question of Acquiring G. A. R. Hall Among Articles —Sunday Sports and Sunday Licenses To Be Considered—Another Article To Place Town Employees Under Civil Service—Acceptance of Several Streets Called For In Warrant

A total of forty-five articles is included in the two warrants for the regular annual town meeting and special town meeting to take place in March. It was learned at the office of the selectmen yesterday.

In the warrant for the regular town meeting, forty-one articles are included, one of which calls for the election of town officers on March 5. The town meeting will be held on March 21 at 8 o'clock while the special town meeting is set for the same evening at 8:30 although special business will likely be postponed until the following week.

Interest is centered on several articles this year. In addition to the stock articles, the warrant contains articles calling for action on Sunday sports, on the acceptance of G. A. R. hall; the 10 percent voluntary contributions and the building of several streets.

Hearing Tonight
This evening a hearing will be held in the Robbins town hall to get the views of petitioners for the articles in the warrant relating to placing town employees under Civil Service. Sylvester A. Keane will speak for the petitioners and the meeting will start at 8:15 o'clock.

The articles in the town warrant include:
Election Town Officers.
Appoint and choose Town Officers in such manner as Town may determine.

The News assumes no financial responsibility for typographical errors in advertisements, but will reprint that part of an advertisement in which an error occurs.

GREAT LEADERS' DAYS

Friday and Saturday have been designated as Great Leaders' Days in commemoration of two great men in our national history, George Washington and Abraham Lincoln.

These two great characters met the test of their times. Both men faced difficult tasks without number that would have overwhelmed men of lesser strength. In spite of obstacles they carried on in such measure that they go down in history as our two greatest men.

The same high courage, faith and vision that characterized these men is needed today by our business men and statesmen.

Our merchants are uniting in an effort to encourage buying in Arlington. They will have many leading values that should interest the thrifty buyer.

More than just bargains, this event enables us all to cooperate in stimulating business right here at home. Our advertisers will welcome your business and will do their utmost to serve you to your entire satisfaction.

We express our appreciation to the firms that are advertising in this issue of the News and we urge the public to assist these merchants in their efforts to offer real values, by trading with them.

LET JUSTICE PREVAIL

We have had letters and calls loudly praising and some condemning our news and editorial comments on the recent Armenian protest meeting. We esteem our Armenian friends regardless of what group they subscribe to and hope they will find that the aim of all true Americans is life, liberty and justice for all.

When politics and church mix there is likely to be trouble. Nevertheless, the assassin has no place in our society, and we trust that all Armenians regardless of political affiliations will unite in seeking to bring to justice the ones responsible for the murder of the Archbishop of the Armenian Apostolic Church.

Lenten Services For Congo Church

At the Orthodox Congregational Church, the pastor, Rev. Laurence L. Barber, has prepared a special series of sermons for the Lenten season under the general title "The Parables of Jesus." The first of these will be given next Sunday morning. The subject will be "The Old Vine and the New."

During the Sunday evenings of Lent this church will cooperate with the First Baptist, the Universalist and the First Parish Unitarian in Lenten services in charge of the group of local pastors.

On Monday afternoon, February 26 at 2.45, an afternoon Lenten service for Women will be held at the home of Miss Edith M. Fox and on Tuesday afternoon of Holy Week, March 27, a similar afternoon service will be held at the home of Mrs. A. W. Hilliard.

Crescent Players' Play February 28

A laugh providing play entitled, "When a Fella Needs a Friend" will be presented Feb. 28 at the Park Ave. Parish House by the Dramatic Club of the First M. E. church.

The play, which is of a merry mixup type, takes place in the bachelor apartment of three boys who have just returned from France after the Great War. Although their finances are low they possess a "never say die" spirit which is needed to the highest degree when the boys learn that rich relatives, who have been led to believe by the boys that they are living in the lap of luxury, come to visit them.

What takes place after the arrival of the rich friends to the dingy old apartment, and the following circumstances which lead up to the climax, can well be imagined.

THE NEWS OBSERVES

It is pleasant to note that Chief Archie F. Bullock of our local police department is giving considerable attention to the handling of gangsters in this area. The police should have every modern weapon and protection to cope with modern gangster activities.

Mail your news items so that they will reach the News office not later than Thursday morning of each week.

To accuse Col. Linbergh of seeking publicity in connection with the cancellation of air mail contracts is ridiculous. The White House and Mr. Parley's handling of the matter almost leads us to believe that we are expected to believe that the administration never makes mistakes.

A tour of the local auto dealers reveals a fine showing of new cars ready for your inspection during Great Leaders' Days. New car orders are reported faster than deliveries can be made.

Lent began on Wednesday, known as Ash Wednesday and continues for forty days. Many Christians will make this a period of self examination and a time for cultivation of higher aspirations.

Fortnightly Club Concert Is Enjoyed By Large Number

The Pop Concert and Guest Night sponsored by the Arlington Fortnightly club was held on Thursday evening in the main ball room of the Commander hotel.

More than 200 guests, seated at brightly decorated tables, enjoyed a brilliant concert.

Mrs. John J. Casey, president of the club opened the meeting and extended a gracious welcome to the guests. After a short meeting Mrs. Casey presented Mrs. Charles A. McCarthy, chairman of music committee who presided during the concert.

The Dance Revue by the young people of the club was a brilliant show. The children sang and danced with a finish and precision of professionals. Miss Rita Flanagan assisted them at the piano. The concert program opened with piano solos by Miss Ruth MacDonald.

Miss Margaret Slattery, accompanied by her sister, Miss Mary Slattery, performed a splendid tap dance. Miss Helen C. McCarthy and Miss Martha Doherty presented readings with unusual ability. Miss Edith Fay, Mrs. Josephine Quigley and Miss Josephine Ribery delighted the audience with their songs. A stringed trio of Arlington High school girls, Miss Phyllis Edwards, violin, Miss Audre Lester, cello, Miss Phyllis Lamothe at the piano, proved an unusually enjoyable number on the program. James Powers, violinist, accompanied by his sister, Miss Leona Powers, added much enjoyment to the concert.

Refreshments were served during the concert. A splendid dance orchestra, under the direction of Hugh Wilcox, radio organist, played for dancing. Between the dances several quartet numbers were given by the Arlington quartet with Miss Helen Whoriskey at the piano.

A large committee assisted including: Mrs. McCarthy, Mrs. George Gilbert, Mrs. Catherine Keane, Mrs. Julia Keating, Mrs. William Kerr, Mrs. Corinne Lane, Miss Anna Lyon, Mrs. Henry Lamothe, Mrs. Josephine Mahabeta, Mrs. John F. McCarthy, Mrs. Stewart Mullen, Mrs. Luke Munroe, Mrs. James Powers, Miss Leona Powers, Mrs. Thomas Robinson, Mrs. James Thomas and Mrs. John Teevan.

Explains His Part In Armenian Riot

To the Editor:
I have a few points to state in connection with the affair occurring at the Town Hall on Feb. 4, 1934.

In my belief it is customary for a citizen to have the right to ask a question at a protest meeting. I was not even given the opportunity to ask a question but was set upon by a mob of persons when I merely asked permission to state my question in English.

In the presence of our own selectmen, G. H. Lowe, Jr., and L. Collins, and Town Counsel J. L. Murphy.

I have been a resident of this town for the past sixteen years and a voter interested in the community in which I live.

Had these persons who attacked me have any respect for law and order themselves, they should have summoned the police and had me removed immediately. But no, they take law and order into their own hands, disrespecting and disregarding the police officers in the corridor nearby who are members of the finest police force in this state.

It is also an opportune time to impress upon you the fact that I had absolutely no intention of causing a disorder, much less being the victim of unscrupulous persons.

My only hope is that this group of persons shall not be able to repeat what occurred in Arlington elsewhere.

Stephen Terjelian.

Curry Dance Pupils Enjoy Gala Parties

Grace D. Curry's pupils held their Valentine party in Odd Fellows Hall last Saturday, the hall being most attractively decorated with many balloons, hearts and cupid. One hundred guests were received by Mrs. Charles Hall, Mrs. Edward H. Leonard and Mrs. W. J. Stevenson in modish evening gowns, being presented by Clifford Birch, Kenneth Spooner, Dwight Simonds, Edward Leonard, John Downs, John Hickey, Eugene Hughes and Harry Mansfield. Favors, valentine and other Germans and two elimination dances with prizes added zest to the evening. A three piece orchestra played for dancing.

In the afternoon the younger pupils of Mrs. Curry held their party in the same hall. Mrs. Earl S. Rice and Mrs. M. R. Des Marais receiving in modish frocks. Masters Lawrence Keefe, Philip Sweet, Roderick Sanderson and Robert Padon carried out their duties as ushers in a most dignified manner.

CWA Workers Give Party To Mrs. Perry

The Arlington group of CWA workers, on completion of their eighth week of serving gave a Valentine party to Mrs. Roscoe Perry, who has the charge of that work in this town.

A suitable gift was presented her, as a testimonial of the esteem and appreciation in which she is held, and the very impartial manner in which she was handled the employment of CWA workers.

Arlington To Play Fitchburg This Evening

The State Champs are in town tonight. Arlington High clashes with the M. I. T. victors in the new High School auditorium gymnasium. Without a doubt Fitchburg has the classiest team in the state. The game starts at 7.30.

Arlington was previously defeated by Fitchburg at that city. Fitchburg had previously shunted off the idea of playing Arlington at home because of the playing conditions but now that Arlington has a floor they are glad to accept, and as a result basketball fans will see a Fitchburg team for the first time in a long while. Coach Amlett is well remembered around this section. He was previously here this year to see a game and find out just what the floor was like. He has very little to worry about in the Arlington team although it might be a little different next year.

Fitchburg should win handily. The red and gray has a fighting team even if it is not Championship material, and every basket that Fitchburg gets over Bill Lowder's boys will be earned.

Pose As Census Takers Here

Persons falsely representing themselves as State CWA census takers will be apprehended by the police and prosecuted if they continue operating in this town. It was learned this week.

According to authorities at the State Employment bureau, some of the twenty-four Arlington census-takers have met with difficulty and have been insulted when they entered homes where they were told the census had already been taken. The census-takers, taken by surprise, reported the matter to authorities and a check-up revealed that certain magazine salesmen in order to gain admittance into homes had falsely misrepresented themselves. Naturally, home-owners were incensed when the census-taker approached them.

The public is urged to ask census-takers for their credentials which bear the State Seal. It is believed that by doing this they will avoid misunderstanding. If for any reason they suspect the person of misrepresenting him or herself they are asked to notify the police immediately.

Citizens' Committee Hold Lively Session

A well-attended meeting of the Citizens' Committee workers in Precinct 4 was held at the home of Precinct Director Edgar I. Lyle, 3 White st. last week. The work of the committee was discussed and, from the reports turned in, it is apparent that Precinct 4 is about to do its share for the Citizens' Committee slate. Plans for the remaining three weeks of the campaign were discussed and all attending expressed confidence in the ultimate result.

Properly Arranged

An establishment from which final services are held must be properly arranged in order that everything will be convenient, including the correct handling of those in attendance.

Here, for instance, everyone, with the exception of the family, may be seated in one room, even if the attendance is large. The family, of course, has its own private quarters.

HUGHES OUT FOR BETTER EL SERVICE

ALBERT E. HUGHES
Civic Committee Candidate for Selectman

At last Sunday's meeting of the Civic Campaign Committee held at the "Ye Lantern," Albert E. Hughes, Civic Committee candidate for Selectman called attention to the transportation facilities of the Boston Elevated Railway between Harvard sq. subway and the Heights, and bus service from Clarendon Hill to the Centre.

Elevated Service

He brought out in detail the deplorable character of the service rendered the people of Arlington, specifically citing instances during the recent cold weather when residents, after having waited in Harvard sq. and on Clarendon Hill from fifteen to thirty minutes for cars and busses, had to hang to straps all the way home. This, the candidate for Selectman said is unfair, in view of the fact that Arlington taxpayers are paying thousands of dollars each year in taxes, for the support of the Elevated car service.

Mr. Hughes promised, if elected to the office of Selectman, to use every means within his power to bring about better car service to Arlington.

Although this matter has been a subject for agitation for years, Mr. Hughes pledged himself to bring about action within the next few weeks. If elected he will see that no concessions of any kind will be granted the Elevated in this town, until the desired

Zoning

Emphasizing the fact that he had obtained a zoning ordinance which is still followed in a neighboring city, and is used as a standard by several others, he felt that this work would be of advantage to him in the office of Selectman of Arlington, which is a growing community and should be safeguarded by an extension of the present zoning laws. This he stated would protect the property owner and taxpayer against undesirable structures in localities which are, and should continue to be residential sections.

Honesty Fairness

Mr. Hughes promised that he would honestly and fairly pass upon all matters coming before him as Selectman, and as a property owner and taxpayer himself, he would oppose any extravagant or needless expenditures of the taxpayers' money.

A Living Wage

On the other hand he firmly believes in a living wage for all town employees in school, police, fire, public works and all other departments. He unhesitatingly asserted that he will fight for the abandonment of the ten percent "donation" practice which is now in force.

False Economy

Mr. Hughes does not advocate false economy at the ultimate expense of the property owner and taxpayer, he said. From his observation and study of conditions in the town, the economy as urged by his opponent Mr. Davis, is false economy and has resulted, and would continue to result in a greater expenditure of taxpayers' money, and the distribution of town finances along the wrong channels. He maintains that employment could have been given to many persons forced into accepting welfare. This employment in place of welfare would result in benefits to the town in the way of public improvement.

Practicing Attorney

In addition to Mr. Hughes' experience as a public official, he has been actively engaged in the practice of law in this vicinity for more than 27 years.

Mr. Hughes stressed the fact that it should be borne in mind that the town has prospered since the candidates sponsored by the Civic Committee have been in office. He advanced this as a further reason why voters of the town should elect the entire list of candidates endorsed by the Civic Committee, in order to insure the town's present financial condition and future programs.

Other Candidates

The remaining candidates, Edward T. Ryan for Board of Public Works; Peter F. O'Neill for Assessor; Joseph J. Berina and Russell Crozier, for School Committee; Joseph Cormier and Paul C. Griffin for Park Commissioners; Henry E. Keenan and Edward Kelley, for Planning Board; spoke briefly.

Selectmen Leonard Collins and George Lowe, together with John E. Mitchell, present members of the Board of Public Works, and John L. Murphy, town council, addressed the meeting.

The next meeting of the Civic Committee will be held at the "Ye Lantern" next Sunday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. All are invited to attend. J. Joseph McManus, chairman, presided.

ITALIAN CLUB TO MEET

The Italian-American Citizens' Club, incorporated will hold another meeting at G. A. R. hall next Sunday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. All candidates for town office have been invited to attend.

OUT FOR OFFICE

Edward V. Guarante, of 29 Chestnut st., well-known local undertaker is among the candidates seeking election as town meeting member. He will represent Precinct 9.

"Why doesn't everybody buy the new Pontiac?"

The other day, in the deepest sincerity, an owner said to us—"Why doesn't everybody buy the new Pontiac?"

Do you know what prompted this question?

This owner had simply learned what we have known since we built this car, namely——that if everybody were completely familiar with the advantages of owning the new Pontiac, almost everybody would want it.

Suppose, briefly, that everybody knew——that Pontiac is really a big car, with a wheelbase of 117 inches, and a Fisher body that is most generously roomy—

—that Pontiac has a big, smooth, powerful straight eight engine—really the equal, in every way, of the very finest power plants—

—that Pontiac has "Knee-Action" wheels as developed by General Motors, which are far different from the independent springing devices offered on other cars in the field—

—that Pontiac has big, smooth, powerful Bendix mechanical brakes—unexcelled by any brakes for safety and ease of action—

—that Pontiac is a product of the General Motors Corporation—the foremost automotive organization in the world—

—that Pontiac is really almost as economical, both to buy and to operate, as any car you can name... including even those that are designed primarily for economy—

—that not more than three or four stock cars in America can pass a Pontiac on the road—

—and, finally, that Pontiac is one of the two most beautiful cars in the world... absolutely regardless of cost!

Yes—if everybody actually knew these things—we believe that just about everybody would want a new Pontiac.

If we're right in this assumption—you want a Pontiac—for you've read the facts here, for yourself. Are we right?

Then come in. We will be delighted to prove to you the full truth of every single statement made in this message.

Predicts Big Year For Dodge, Plymouth

Kenneth Reed, head of the Reed Motor Company, of 795 Massachusetts avenue is really optimistic about Dodge and Plymouth sales this year. Referring to the new cars, he said yesterday:

"Dodge jumped into fourth place in sales last July and steadily increased the margin between its sales and those of its nearest competitor in each of the following months so that Dodge passenger cars were definitely in fourth place for the entire year and show the largest percentage of gain over any car in the industry."

"Also you want to watch the Plymouth this year. We are selling more cars than we have for many years and we invite the public to see these real leaders at our showrooms, 795 Massachusetts avenue."

"We also have the leaders in used cars such as Dodges, Plymouths, Chevrolets, Fords and a few other makes."

Murray Questions Gott On Sales Tax

I would like to ask our State Representative Hollis Gott, why he voted for the "Sterilization Bill?"

People of Arlington, this bill means the inoculation and surgery of unfortunates, the insane, the feeble-minded and epileptic inmates of State and County institutions.

You know very well Mr. Gott, that the "Real" purpose of this "Bill" is "Birth Control", because it was drawn up in such a way, so as to use these unfortunates; as a "Blind," in order to put this "Bill" through the legislature.

If this is not true Mr. Gott, are conditions at our State institutions in such bureaucracy—that we need this method to stop them?

You will recall, Mr. Gott, House Bill, No. 1046, May 31, 1933, which states in part "that the Department of Mental diseases be authorized to construct a school for feeble-minded children."

Why, Mr. Gott, did you vote "No" on this bill, when you are "supposed" to be so interested in our inmates?

I call your attention Mr. Gott, to House Bill No. 52 which was for the purpose of providing for appointment of a special commission to investigate prevailing rates and charges for service furnished by telephone companies, within the Commonwealth.

Why, Mr. Gott, did you vote "No" on this bill?

Now you are in favor of the Sales Tax Mr. Gott.

To my way of thinking, Sales Taxes are objectionable because they are in most cases, added to the price, the ultimate consumer must pay for bare necessities of life. Therefore, Mr. Gott, the real burden of the Sales Tax, is being forced upon the great mass of wage earners; who can least afford to pay.

You, Mr. Gott, stated that you were "looking" for ways and means to collect taxes?

According to a recent survey by the University of Chicago, the total income from interest and dividends to the wealthy class, have increased to about 180 percent in 1932 over 1926.

The total amount of wages received by workers during the same period, has decreased 40 percent.

Any system of taxation which exempts the income of the wealthy class, derived from interest and dividends, while at the same time, places a heavy tax burden on the decreased income of the working class, is not only unjust, but is extremely dangerous.

Reliable information shows that about eight billion dollars, ($8,000,000,000) per annum, is received as income by the wealthy classes from interest on local State and National securities, which Mr. Gott, is absolutely "Free" from all taxes.

At least $400,000,000 of dividends from shares of stock, is absolutely "Free" of the Federal Normal Income Tax (but a portion only is subject to the "sur-tax" rates).

On the other hand, wages and profits derived from labor and industry are subject to income tax, with only a small amount of exemption.

The State of Pennsylvania tried this "Sales Tax" on the wage earners, but threw it out, as a complete "Failure."

The State of New York now has the "Sales Tax" and there is now a Bill in the House, to abolish it as a "Failure."

The State of California is now trying it and it is a complete "Failure" as you well know the expression the Californians use "Two cents for Rolph."

The people of Massachusetts do not want the "Sales Tax" Mr. Gott!

Why don't you go after the Big Boys?

The bankers and real estate promoters who want to "Unload" after taking away from the workers their homes, because they could not pay, on account of the depression.

It appears, Mr. Gott, that you are working now (as in the past) hand in hand with the "Big Interests."

You stated in the Arlington Daily News, February 9, 1934, "Tax Them they should be thankful to pay."

What are the people going to use for money, Mr. Gott and where are they going to get it? With this in mind, look over the record of tax collections for Massachusetts, for the last five years.

On January 1, 1930, the average of uncollected taxes was 22.51 per cent.

On January 1, 1931, it was 23.94 per cent; 1932, it was 25.50 per cent; 1933 it jumped to 32.88 per cent and on January 1, 1934 it advanced to 34.27 per cent.

This means Mr. Gott, that with all the improvements in business in 1933 and with all the money, the Federal, the State and CWA et als, poured in here, more than one-third of the taxes, were uncollected at the first of the year, 1934.

Style Leader 6 and 8

In Arlington—you know, we are facing an increase in taxes for this year.

Do you know Mr. Gott, that three per cent of the people of the United States attain a position of wealth? Do you know that only ten per cent of the people accumulate $10,000 and 87 per cent die penniless, and many of them in their declining years, are supported by relatives or are placed in institutions for the poor or aged?

These are verified statistics Mr. Gott—try and prove otherwise!

The laborer is worthy of his hire, what we need Mr. Gott—and you must know it—should now know it—is a more equal distribution of wages and profits—and not "Sales Taxes."

How, Mr. Gott? Let me suggest a way and means. Machinery and scientific methods produce more than what formerly could be produced by the labor of 40 men. It is obvious that such efficient producer is not being paid 40 times in real compensation over what the "hard labor man" received.

Who benefits, the investment class who then invest its surplus income in tax exempt securities. Am I right Mr. Gott?

Intermediates Have Gala Party

Those who did not attend the Valentine Party of the Intermediate C. E. Society of the First Baptist Church which was held last Monday evening, missed a grand good time in the unanimous opinion of the fifty-two young people who were present. From the very start to the finish it was an evening of fun for everyone. Many and varied were the Valentine games played, and hearts and arrows, fortune-tellers, and one's future mate, etc., were much in evidence.

All gathered around the refreshment table which was attractively decorated with red

W. P. Aylward Now In Charge of Meat Dept. Heights Store

W. P. Aylward, one of the pioneer marketmen of Arlington, for the past five years superintendent of markets for the Economy Grocery Stores corporation and recently general manager of the Economy Grocery and Meat stores at Arlington Centre, has been transferred to 1340 Massachusetts Ave., Arlington Heights, another Economy Grocery and Meat store, to take charge of the Meat department.

Mr. Aylward has had the pleasure of serving hundreds of the good housewives of Arlington, Winchester and West Medford for many years. The reason for his success is that he always carried and sold the very best meat obtainable.

Just call Arlington 4886 and Mr. Aylward will send you just what you want. The quality will be right, the price right and the service must be right. Our steaks, chops and roasts are seldom equalled. Economy Grocery Stores Corp., 1340 Massachusetts Ave., Arlington Heights, Telephone 4886. (Adv't.)

The Civic, Literature and Education committee had charge of the Woman's club meeting in Robbins town hall yesterday afternoon. Miss Grace Gordon Pierce gave an interesting talk on the value of music and presented her school pupils in a novel program.

candles, valentine baskets filled with candy at each place, red hearts with fortunes for each one, and fittingly completed with ice cream with a heart in the center, and delicious cakes of all varieties with valentine fillings. The social committee consisted of Barbara Burns, Betty Moore, Helen Richardson, Muriel Emery, Roger Parker, Carleton Patriquin and Gordon Bowen. This wide-awake Intermediate society meets on Sunday evenings from six to seven, and all young people between the ages of twelve and sixteen are cordially invited to attend.

Ed Ryan Raps False Economy

"False economy,—robbing Peter to pay Paul" was the keynote of a talk given by Edward T. Ryan, Chairman of the Board of Public Works, at a meeting of the Arlington Civic Committee at Ye Langens last Sunday afternoon.

In explaining his charge he stated, "The Finance Committee this year cut the appropriations of the Public Works Department almost $100,000. This would have been real economy if the taxpayer had felt the benefit of it, but the tax rate did not change. The money taken away from the Public Works was simply transferred to Welfare, where the requirements this year were doubled. In reducing the Public Works appropriation this year the Finance Committee forced many Town men out of work, making it necessary that they apply to the Welfare for support. That is false economy,—that is robbing Peter to pay Paul."

In commenting on the work of his department this year, Mr. Ryan said, "In spite of the reduction in our appropriation, we have carried on the work of the Department. The highway program was carried out. There was no loss of efficiency in the Sanitary Dept. New streets were constructed, by Town labor, for $6,000 less than the estimated costs. Every possible dollar was used for projects which enabled the Board to give work to the men. In the matter of distribution of the work, consideration was given to those who had worked for the Town for years married men, and those having dependents."

"I sincerely hope that the Finance Committee will see the wisdom of President Roosevelt's policy that we must create work for the unemployed through Public Works improvements and that they will recognize that this is far more important right now than the reduction of our Bonded Debt."

In concluding his remarks Mr. Ryan stated, "In asking for a second term, I feel confident that the fair-minded voters of Arlington will recognize that, despite the trying conditions, I have given the people an honest, efficient administration, and will so express their approval on election day."

LOEW'S ORPHEUM THEATRE

The first Boston screenings of the new Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy full length comedy feature, "Some of the Bessie!" are now on view at Loew's Orpheum theatre together with a new bill of all-star vaudeville.

Marty May with Jean Carroll headline the vaudeville show in a sparkling comedy offering interspersed with several songs and dances. Always an interesting feature, Marty May offers many new stories in his new act. Enrico & Novello with Dave Kraft and Bill Tiegner present an exquisite dance extravaganza while other acts include the Three Fonals in a melange of mirth and melody, Wally Jackson and Eddie Gardner in "The Autocrats of the Air," Kay Payne, NBC's "Sympathetic Singer of Songs," and Arthur LaFleur in startling physical feats.

The Mid-season party of the Frances Aldrich dance pupils will be held at G. A. R. hall next Tuesday. The party will be a Valentine and Washington's Birthday celebration. Refreshments and favors will be features of the event.

CONFIDENT OF VICTORY FOR CITIZENS' CANDIDATE

ERNEST W. DAVIS
Citizens' Committee Candidate for Selectman

The Arlington Citizens' Committee approaches the last three weeks of the campaign with confidence in the election of its slate. The number of workers is far greater than in former years.

Ernest W. Davis, candidate for Selectman, has been carrying on the good work of the Finance Committee and has taken relatively few nights off to campaign for himself. He realizes, as must all citizens of Arlington, that town government, to be successful, must be economical.

The cost of running the various town departments has been cut to a minimum, and yet no protests have been heard as to lack of service.

Arlington's credit has never been better; Arlington's taxes have not risen; and the expenses of running the town have been cut 30 percent in two years.

With Ernest W. Davis on the job Arlington need not fear the same fate that has befallen neighboring cities where maladministration has gained control. Economy is the watchword today; "economy and efficiency."

Loren W. Marsh, candidate for the board of Public Works, is ready again to give Arlington three more years of service that he gave for six years previously as a member of that Board. Six years' experience on the board; no other candidate can match that!

The Citizens' Committee faces the future with the hope that the voters of Arlington will arise to attempt to promote good, clean, efficient and economical government.

Local High Girls' Teams Top Melrose

With Helen McCarthy and Kitty Hart doing the heavy scoring the Arlington High fair haired section of athletics copied their sixth victory of the season this week. Miss McCarthy's charges have dropped only one basketball game in two years. The score was 34 to 12 and the game was played in the old High School gym with Melrose.

The second team also showing brilliant form captured the other game with the score of 39 to 13.

ket in the Centre, explaining this seeming contradiction by saying, "Retail fish prices have been abnormally high for several months because of a serious curtailment in the catches due to a strike of the men who man the larger trawlers. Most of these boats, which are the ones that produce the bulk of the fish landed in the Boston market, have been tied up for weeks, and we have been dependent on small boats to catch enough to supply all who demand fresh fish. The smaller craft are restricted by weather conditions and in a period of cold and storms such as has prevailed the demand was bound to exceed the supply. Consequently retail prices have been forced to a point where many women have felt obliged to forego their usual purchases of fish."

"However, the strike was settled last week and all the boats have returned to work, and as radio reports indicate that they are taking good catches we are promised plentiful supplies except for intermittent spells of exceptionally severe weather."

In connection with the policy of his store, Mr. Wood also states, "During the period of extremely high prices much frozen fish has been offered and many stores have featured out-of-season varieties, notably swordfish and mackerel, which, of course, are frozen at this time of the year. Such foisting of frozen storage goods on unsuspecting purchasers is an excellent means of dealers maintaining their sales volume, but it is the boast of the Seafood Store that it sells only the best and we have kept faith with our customers. Whatever We believe that the majority of families prefer fish which is absolutely fresh—not only not frozen but not stale—even though it costs a few cents more. Therefore our efforts are bent toward seeing how good our fish can be rather than how cheap we can sell. However, from now on, because of the increase in supplies, there will be only a very slight difference in the cost of the best fish and that of mediocre quality and good fish will be within the reach of everyone."

LOEW'S STATE THEATRE

Ramon Novarro and Jeanette MacDonald, a new romantic musical co-starring combination, makes its appearance in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's new hit, "The Cat and the Fiddle" which is currently showing at Loew's State theatre.

On the stage, Alice O'Leary, Boston's popular favorite, is held over for a second week. Miss O'Leary offers another entertaining program of popular song hits. She will be accompanied by Carl Moore at the piano.

On Sunday, five big vaudeville acts featuring the State Theatre Orchestra directed by Arthur Geissler are presented in addition to the regular big screen features.

BEAUTY, and what's more, beauty with a purpose; that's what Sylvia Winters sees in these modern automatic gas ranges. Simplicity of line and design entirely smart and because of the absence of "ginger bread" and dust gathering spots, thoroughly practical, too. Smooth, lustrous porcelain enamel surfaces inside and out, modern, gleaming, easy to clean. Harmonious colors, lovely of themselves and so carefully chosen that you're bound to find exactly what you want to fit into the color scheme of your own kitchen. And incidentally, beauty that is more than skin-deep; honest, sturdy finish that's hard to chip or scratch; even the oven interiors are cleverly speckled with white enamel to make them lighter, brighter, easier in which to see and work.

REHEARSALS UNDER WAY FOR "DADDY LONG LEGS"

The following have been cast for the parts in "Daddy Long Legs", the play to be given by the Friends of the Drama in the Town Hall, Friday and Saturday evenings, March 9 and 10, for the benefit of the Arlington Girl Scouts: Susan Powers, Prescott Boston, Mrs. George Yale, Ruberta Bailey, Alice Grayce Lenk, Dorothy Ring, Mrs. George Tewksbury, Mrs. Albert Ellison, Nancy Webb, Charles Dockrill, Sidney High, Carl Fowler, Herschel Curry, Fire Girl Scouts, Peggy Jones, Louise Hall, Betty Kennedy, Viola Moore and Frances Yeames, will act as orphans. All who have read the book "Daddy Long Legs", or seen either the stage play or the motion picture version, will want to see Arlington players add another big success to the many already won by the Friends of the Drama.

The Arlington Girl Scouts have won second place in achievement among all the Girl Scouts of Massachusetts. There are fourteen troops, some with a waiting list. Many useful things are taught the girls. They learn about trees, birds, flowers. They acquire knowledge of how to give first aid, how to care for a child, how to make things as easy as possible for a sick person in the home. They are being given opportunities. High ideals, exemplified by their laws, are kept before them.

To maintain this character-building organization, the Arlington Girl Scout Council, consisting of less than thirty women, who give freely of their time and energy, asks the cooperation of the people of Arlington in their efforts to bring out a wholesome, interesting play, which will appeal to all the family, for the benefit of a worthy cause.

Tickets are already in the hands of the Council members, and the troop committees, under the direction of Mrs. Frederick Hall, Mrs. Edward Bailey and Mrs. Howard Allen.

The troop committees are looking after the costumes. Mrs. Charles Pierce and Mrs. F. L. Eames are in charge of properties; Mrs. James A. Bailey of music; Mrs. John G. McKett of programs; Mrs. Arlin Sampson, Mrs. Curtis Waterman and Mrs. F. P. Hawkes of publicity.

The Girl Scouts of the Senior Troops will usher and sell candy between the acts. Mrs. Robert B. Parmenter is in charge of the ushers; Mrs. E. L. Shinn and Mrs. Oscar Schmetzer, of the candy.

Presentation of "The Merchant of Venice" Proves Remarkable

It is truly said that Shakespeare's words were written for stage presentation and not for reading purposes. The Arlington High School Dramatic Club proved this in the comedy "The Merchant of Venice", which was directed by Mrs. Helen Matthews and Miss Claire Johnston. So great was the success that many of the audience stayed long after the finish and secured autographs from the different members of the cast.

In spite of the cold weather the hall was filled and there was indeed an enthusiastic audience. Many out-of-town people came to witness the performance and were well rewarded for their journey.

Simplicity in scenery attracted the attention of many who delighted in the idea of the modernistic settings which seemed to fit the plot to perfection. On either side of the stage were doors by which the actors entered and proved effective entrances, especially when Launcelot Gobbo, the mischievous servant, came tripping into the street scene. At the back of the stage were stairs which led in the Belmont scenes at Portia's home, to the caskets from which the suitors were to choose. The one choosing the casket containing Portia's counterfeit would become her husband. In other scenes the stairs led into the street and served as the entrance for many members of the play. The simple, but effective scenery made it possible for hardly a two minute wait between scenes and just a little longer between the acts.

This is by far the most elaborate and finest presentation ever produced by the High School Dramatic club and will be a foundation on which to establish future plays in trying to equalize this great drama.

Music was supplied by the high school orchestra under the direction of Hassler Elmsig. Incidental music during the performance was a vocal solo by Ruth Olive, trumpeting by Gordon Anderson, and a string quartette.

Emery Battis, the schoolboy star dramatic actor who portrayed "Grumpy" last year, showed his wonderful ability again in the role of Shylock, the great Shakespearean Jewish money lender. Each lot of speech was produced in such a way that his acting helped to make the play the finished production that it was.

Floyd Battis, Jr., Emery's brother, showed the audience that two of a family might make a great acting team. His characterization of Launcelot Gobbo, the clownish servant, brought many a laugh and established himself as a comedian.

The queenly and attractive lady, Portia, was portrayed by Lorraine Miller. She is a sophomore with marked acting ability which was very outstanding in the Court scene. Her maid, Nerissa, played by Sherbrook Yates, offered a commendable attraction when coupled with Milton Matthews in the talkative role of Gratiano.

Bassanio, winner of Portia, was played by Richard Fowler, who proved himself worthy of such a master role. David Yates, acting as his friend, Antonio, made an interesting portrayal of the Shakespearean character.

Though there are love scenes in "The Merchant of Venice" that in which Lorenzo played by Russell Curry and Jessica by Marjorie Harrington, is most certainly the outstanding courtship of the play. The situation of a Jewess and a Christian was presented in such a pleasing manner as to seem realistic.

The whole cast was unbelievably talented and the quest for ability Mrs. Matthews, director of the dramatics, found the material handy in the club membership of over 300 interested students.

A party was held for the members of the cast after the performance at the home of Lorraine Miller. Pictures were taken of the principals and then of the entire cast.

Others of the cast were:

A meeting of the Hardy School Parent-Teacher Association was held in the school hall last Tuesday evening. M. Norcross, Stratton, member of the School Committee, gave a talk on the co-operation necessary between the Parent-Teacher organizations and the School Board. He then introduced the guest speaker of the evening, Harry Gardner, of the State Department of Education, who gave an interesting discussion on "Education for Making Men and Developing Personality."

In connection with the membership drive, a banner was presented to Miss King's class, representing the largest number of persons present who were interested in children from that room.

The social program of the evening consisted of readings by Claire Potter, and duets by the Arakian sisters, Annie playing the violin and Armenia at the piano. Refreshments were served by mothers of the fourth grade.

Arrangements were made to have a bridge and whist party in the auditorium March 1st at 8 p. m. for the purpose of increasing the funds in the treasury. The Association has done much to improve the condition of the school in this community, and the proceeds of the bridge party are to take care of any future relief work.

Troop 10 Host To Other Scouts

Troop 10 of the Calvary M. E. Church invited Troops 2, 3 and 14 of East Arlington to a joint Church service last Sunday evening. About fifty Scouts, all four Scoutmasters, and several Troop committeemen were present from these Troops.

Scoutmaster Alsen was in charge of the service. Eagle Scout Robert Teter gave responsive readings; John Libby read the scripture; Dr. William Shaw, pastor of the Church and the Troop Chairman, gave a very appropriate sermon "A Typical American" depicting the life of Abraham Lincoln; and Eagle Scout Fred George gave the Scout Benediction.

Boy Scouts Carrying Out F. D.'s Appeal

Plans to carry out the "Good Turn" asked of the Boy Scouts of America by President Roosevelt last Saturday noon have already been outlined in the different towns and cities of Sachem Council, and the work of collecting furniture, bedding, clothing, etc., under the direction of Scoutmasters has begun. The "Good Turn" is in charge of District Scout Commissioners Richard W. Howe, Alfred C. Woodward and Hallam King.

The town will be thoroughly covered during the next three weeks. Articles collected will be tabulated and turned over to the relief organization.

Everywhere the Scouts have entered into the spirit of the President's message and the results of the work promise to be outstanding.

The Scouts of Sachem Council gathered Saturday noon at the various mobilization points in the Council area and listened with the deepest interest to the President's talk, and under his leadership repeated the Scout Oath.

More than 600 Scouts, Scouters, and friends of Scouting were present at the mobilization places, while scores of others, unable to be present, listened in at their homes or places of business.

Entertainment To Provide Funds For Welfare Council

A special meeting of the officers of the Welfare Council was held recently to discuss a plan to provide money for the office expenses.

It was decided to have an entertainment in the Old Town Hall on Tuesday, March 13 and moving pictures are to be the form of entertainment.

R. B. Parmenter of the State Forestry Extension Service in Massachusetts will show movies of the C.C.C. camps and tell about the work being done. Mrs. R. B. Parmenter will show pictures of her trip through Labrador.

The public was told last week that orders for rolls, cakes and pastry would be received at the Council office. Arl. 6206 is the food exchange number and all orders must be received on Tuesday and Friday for delivery on Wednesday and Saturday. These foods are of excellent quality and moderately priced. This is a constructive form of welfare work and enables these families to provide their own aid.

Arlington A. A. Tops First Baptist Team

With each and every player going at top speed throughout the entire game the Arlington Athletic Association trimmed the First Baptist church basketball team at the Junior High East 77-31.

The game started out to be a major bumping contest with neither team being able to gain any headway in that manner. In the second period the Big Red charged ahead to a 23-14 lead and from that point on were never headed or even pressed. The churchmen were content to shoot from any distance and were never in the game. This game dispels any fear of the First Baptist church displacing the A. A. from the league lead and it looks like a Big Red title with seven wins and no losses. The Second Half saw Arlington A. A. pile up 53 points handily and with the greatest teamwork led by Bob Friery and Eddie Galucci. Joe Donahue showed the form that will bring him many admirers by his clever handling of the ball and his eye for the basket. Bob Nelson was high scorer for the Baptist and his play was the only revelation for the church team.

The score:

ARLINGTON A. A.		Goals
Galucci rf	7	Floor Fouls Pts.
Donahue lf	8	2	15
Driscoll c	5	0	10
Lowder rg	4	4	12
Crocco rg	0	1	1
Friery lg	8	5	21

It being the intention to give those who desire to play cards that opportunity and at the same time to devote a portion of the evening to the viewing of new styles and novelties of the coming Spring.

After the business meeting the girls adjourned to the banquet hall for an evening's enjoyment. Each girl was dressed as a small girl or in baby clothes. ## New Oldsmobile Agency To Open Here Tomorrow

Another automobile agency will make its bow to Arlington people tomorrow when Gordon B. Seavey, who has been associated with the F. K. Johnson Co. of Lexington for the past five years will formally open the new Oldsmobile show rooms at 745 Massachusetts Ave.

GORDON SEAVEY
New Oldsmobile Agent

mobile show rooms at 745 Massachusetts Ave.

Mr. Seavey will manage the local agency for F. K. Johnson. In the spacious salesroom next to the Colonial Garage, which has been thoroughly redecorated, the 1934 Oldsmobile will be shown to advantage. Mr. Seavey is by no means a newcomer in the automobile industry. For the past four years he has been selling General Motors products and is thoroughly familiar with the cars which he sells. Mr. Seavey is a graduate of the University of New Hampshire, class of '29. He has a large number of friends here and in Lexington and cordially invites them as well as the general public to visit the new salesroom tomorrow.

The first showing in Arlington of 1934 Oldsmobiles, with the much-talked-of "knee-action" front wheels, is sure to get attention. The new straight Eight Oldsmobile on display represents the first shipment of 1934 Oldsmobiles to be received here.

The 1934 Oldsmobile Six, a new entry in the low price field, will be on display in the new future. Illustrations, catalogs and complete information of the new Six will be distributed at the showroom, 745 Massachusetts Ave. The new Six is described as an all-features roomy, high-economy car.

The new Oldsmobiles are beautiful in appearance, the body lines developing advanced ideas in aerodynamic designing. Engineering improvements that are entirely new to the industry are included in the chassis.

CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST

"Soul" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, February 18. The Golden Text is: "Rejoice the soul of thy servant: for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul" (Psalms 86:4).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "But take diligent heed to do the commandment and the law, which Moses the servant of the Lord charged you, to love the Lord your God, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and to cleave unto him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul" (Joshua 22:5).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Question.—What are the demands of the Science of Soul? Answer.—The first demand of this Science is, 'Thou shalt have no other gods before me.' This is no idle spirit. Therefore the command means this: Thou shalt have no intelligence, no life, no substance, no truth, no love, but that which is spiritual" (p. 467).

STRESSES IMPORTANCE OF PLANNING BOARD

Henry E. Keenan, local Real estate broker, spoke before the Civic Committee and outlined his qualifications for the office of Planning Board, which he seeks at the Town election. He touched briefly on his personal history, having graduated from the Arlington High School, as did his brother Emmett Keenan; that his father and mother have been long-time residents of the Town, his father, James G. Keenan, being connected for a long time with the local Post Office Department.

HENRY E. KEENAN
Candidate for office

This personal history was given he explained, to show his knowledge of the growth of the Town and his personal interest in its future development. A very interesting remark of his was that the office of Planning Board is looked upon by most people as just another place on the ballot to be marked with an "X". As home owners, investment buyers and land owners all people living within the Town should realize how the Board functions as an important part of Town government he said. The Planning Board makes recommendations as to change in zoning laws; new public improvements, such as major traffic highways to relieve serious traffic conditions; the development of more convenient transportation in and out of Town; the advisability of well placed parks and playgrounds. These recommendations all affect the valuation and the future development of any person's private holdings in the Town. Mr. Keenan stated that he has been engaged in the Real Estate business for the past twelve years in and around the Town of Arlington. He was appointed, early in the Fall, as appraiser for the Home Loan Bank in this vicinity.

He also stated that he would always hold an open door policy if elected to the office and that those who cared to call at his office at No. 673 Massachusetts Ave., Arlington, would always find him willing to talk over plans for the future needs of all. In his concluding remarks he stated his desire to listen to the suggestions made to him by the voters of the Town of Arlington; also to recommend many of his personal ideas on development of the Town, and at all times to work in complete harmony with the present hard-working members of the Board.

MAINE MEMORIAL DAY ADDRESS IS GIVEN BY GENERAL LOMBARD

Yesterday was Maine Memorial Day and was celebrated throughout the State by the various camps of the United Spanish War Veterans. The Corp William P. Kenibbs Camp of Arlington combined with Camp 30 of Medford in celebrating this occasion. General Walter E. Lombard, commander of the Arlington Camp, No. 66, the guest speaker, delivered the following address:

Thirty-six years ago today there occurred in Havana Harbor an event which shocked the entire world and that is, the blowing up of the U. S. Battleship "Maine" after she had been anchored at the exact spot designated by the Spanish officials. That this destruction was premeditated and carefully prepared for, there can be no doubt, for prior to the explosion there were rumors in Havana that on that night there would be a happening on the water front that would be well worth seeing. And these rumors were fulfilled and 266 of the officers and men of our navy were killed. Some people think that this catastrophe was the real reason for the Spanish-American War but this is not wholly true although it was the last straw that broke the camel's back.

From the conquest of Cuba, the inhuman treatment of its inhabitants by the Spaniards was a blot on civilization, and yet although these brutalities were taking place practically in our own doorway, we did nothing to prevent their continuance. We remained blind and deaf to the cries of distress from our next door neighbors.

Emboldened by our neglect to intervene the Spaniards began to practice their brutalities on American citizens, seizing our vessels and murdering their crews without any fair trial.

Some of you older men probably remember the capture of the Virginia in 1873, at which time its captain, 36 of the crew, and 11 passengers were captured and murdered. And yet we did nothing to avenge the deaths of these men and the conditions went from bad to worse in Cuba and insurrection after insurrection occurred, the Cubans endeavoring to relieve themselves of the Spanish yoke.

Forced To Intervene
Just prior to 1898 the brutal treatment of Cubans by their oppressors reached a stage where our country was forced to take some action and efforts were made to have Spain cease its hostilities and give to the Cubans the rights to which they were justly entitled.

Relations became so strained that it was finally decided that our citizens in Cuba must be protected and the "Maine" was sent to Havana. Now peaceful was her purpose. Despite the gross of Mars, and merciful her mission. Beneath the southern stars; She did not come with vengeance To rock a tyrant's throne, But merely out of duty To guard and save her own.

O, ship for ship against her— With fighting fair and free, In battle-rigging steaming Upon a sunlit sea, On all the seven oceans No ship of weight and size Would dare to taunt her turret Nor draw her gunners' eyes.

Yet with the darkness fallen And all her men at rest, And trustful sentries watching The starlight in the west, The fiends from out of hades Unleashed a powder-dart, And plunged the vile destruction Into her friendly heart.

Along about this time some of the papers at that time known as the "yellow press" published articles describing the horrible conditions existing in Cuba which so aroused the people of this country that our nation was obliged to take some decisive action, and yet even after the "Maine" had been sunk our legislators believed that they could by peaceful methods prevail upon Spain to withdraw its army from Cuba and give the Cubans limited liberty.

These newspaper articles were so lurid that some of our Congressmen did not believe there was any foundation for them, or at least thought that they were greatly overdrawn.

Investigate Conditions
Four of our senators, therefore, of their own initiative went to Cuba in March, 1898, to investigate the actual conditions then existing and found that they were even worse than anything which had been published.

These senators were Proctor of Vermont, Gallinger of New Hampshire, Thurston of Nebraska and Money of Mississippi. They were four of the most reliable members of the Senate and they were unanimous in rendering an opinion that it was time that our nation should intervene.

With the sinking of the "Maine" it was believed that war with Spain must eventually come and men from city and town, from mountain and valley, rushed to recruiting offices and armories anxious to enlist in the service of their country in this great emergency. Many volunteer regiments were formed which were never used, the augmented militia regiments being deemed sufficient to answer the first call for troops when the President issued his call for troops from the different States.

Finally it was declared on April 21, over two months after that horrible catastrophe in Havana Harbor, and President McKinley on April 25th called for 125,000 volunteers and the response was so great that there was at least ten men for every place, consequently, in the formation of our regiments, and in the training of our warships, we had the best young men of the country to choose from and the great majority of these select were men and not boys.

Greatly Admired
Speaking of the type of these volunteers and our conduct of the war, Gen. Miles wrote: "The heroic dash and bravery shown on sea and land by our citizen soldiers and marines won the admiration of the most warlike nations; yet while valiant in strife we were gentle and compassionate in our triumph. The tender hand of woman followed our lines at every point with food, medicines, and with soothing touch for the sick and dying, friend and foe alike. This act, undertaken for humanity's sake, has seen a high star set for the conduct of civilized warfare in the future."

We were extremely fortunate in having two Massachusetts men at the head of the Army and Navy: Gen. Nelson A. Miles and John D. Long, and much credit must be given to these gentlemen for the manner in which the War with Spain was brought to a successful conclusion in such a short time and with little loss of life. It must be borne in mind, however, that the War with Spain was only one part of the Spanish-

American War, the other parts interlocked therewith being the Philippine Insurrection and the China Expeditionary Forces to quell the Boxer Rebellion.

When our regiments departed for Cuba, to Rico, the Philippines and Southern camps, they were loudly cheered by the multitudes on their line of march and were hailed as heroes who were willing to give their lives if need be in the service of the country in time of war.

Nothing was too good for them then and they were promised that their deeds would be taken care of by an appreciative country in the event of death, wounds and disease, and in old age when conditions arose which prevented them from supporting themselves, but no Spanish War Pension Bill passed Congress until over twenty years after the War with Spain.

Times have changed since those eventful days of '98 and we find that those men who in obedience to orders, found themselves defending our vast cities, who were sleeping in mud in Southern camps, or who were acting as an army of occupation in a fever-ridden country, were not even in the War in the opinion of the present administration at Washington.

Called Chiselers
Today the same men who were called heroes in 1898 to 1902 while faithfully serving their country in the Army and Navy, and who now find themselves unable under present conditions to find employment on account of age and disabilities are characterized as chiselers and grafters and the small pensions which they have been receiving for the past few years have been taken from them or cut to a minimum by the brutal regulations promulgated March 1, 1933.

As a result of these regulations many of our comrades have answered their last roll call either by taking their own lives or from shock while in their illness they learned that they were to lose the only income they had depended on for existence. This is the kind of treatment we are getting under the New Deal we believe is a very raw deal. What we want is a square deal.

Holiday Week At Capitol Theatre

"Should Ladies Behave" based on the "Vinegar Tree", Paul Osbourne's scintillating comedy of a group of people who get into amusing difficulties at a weekend house party, is the first of the four feature attractions coming to the screen of the Capitol Theatre next week to form a gala Holiday Week Program. This picture starring Lionel Barrymore and Alice Brady will play Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The principal trio of the Osbourne play, described as a wry commentary on modern life, include Augustus Merrick, a touchy but lovable old man with liver trouble whose picturesque country estate provides the romantic setting for the action of the story, his slightly giddy wife, Laura, who constantly cherishes love affairs of the past but who some how or other can never remember the names of the men involved; and Max Lawrence, a specialist in amorous adventures. The cast includes Conway Tearle, Mary Carlisle and William Janney.

The companion picture for the first half of the week is the hauntingly beautiful "Cradle Song" a deeply emotional tale of mother love and sacrifice with Dorothea Weick, who brings to the role all the charm and beauty she displayed as the school teacher in "Maedchen in Uniform." "Cradle Song" is an example of the finer things that can come from Hollywood.

Thursday (Washington's Birthday) brings Eddie Cantor to the Capitol in his latest picture, "Roman Scandals." It wouldn't be fair to divulge the plot, because its many unexpected twists and bright surprises make it the delectable film concoction it is. Able acting Eddie are Ruth Etting, Gloria Stuart, David Manners and the Goldwyn Girls in many gorgeous numbers. The companion picture will de-

Sport Notes

Lester Barrett former Arlington High and Worcester Academy star played hockey for the Dartmouth Freshman Monday when they beat Clark School 3 to 1. Les played center ice. . . Russ Snow also formerly of Arlington High is the star of the Mass. State hockey sextette this year. Russ has scored in almost every game. He happens to be also the captain of the team. . . Al Lane and Billy Collins, Arlington's two "early defense men" will be knocking them over for the All Stars tomorrow afternoon at the Boston Garden when they play the Bay Staters in what should be a blood battle. . . Charlie Strack the wrestler and a resident of Arlington seems to be still in line for that B. U. coaching job that we said he might get once before. . . The Arlington H. basketball team has now lost six games and won four. They have a chance to even it up before the season ends but we are afraid they won't. . . The hockey team has completed its season. It seems rather strange to have the hockey games still being played on outdoor ice. . . The playoffs in the Arlington Amateur Basketball League start Monday in the Junior High East. . . Every team in the League is eligible. . . There should be some good battles during the playoffs. . . The Arleat Club and the Menotomy Club have hired adjoining stores on Mass. Ave. opposite Wyman St. for clubrooms. . . Two clubs in the East end. One in the Heights and none in the Center. Oh Well. . . Arlington High will be the State Champs in football next fall. They have some schedule to play, too. Arlington will be sort of a guide mark. They will determine the strength of Malden and Fitchburg, and the comparison will not do the red and gray a bit of harm. . . That famous basketball team that won the Tech tournament for Arlington High is once again playing basketball. . . J. Bessey and Tim MacNamara have been playing in the Amateur basketball League. Driscoll, Friery, and Donahue are part of Crocco's great A. A. team. They play in the Plymouth tournament next week. . . We see by the Arlington High Chronicle that Billy Collins intends to go to Fordham and that Gene Graf has eleven straight victories for the year. Other than that most of the staff's effeminate in the paper. . . That Helen McCarthy is some basketball player. She must have well over a hundred points this year. That's pretty good for a girl. Kitty Dart is a good running mate for her, making almost the same amount of points every game. . . That Joie Lax was the forgotten man of hockey this year. Joie will probably be Captain for next year.

light the kiddies and the grown-ups as well. Jackie Cooper is featured in "The Cowboy" as Scooter O'Neil braving a up in Chicago and sent West on a ranch by his father. The boy reaches the ranch and meets Dobe Jones, "The Lone Cowboy". The story is thrilling enough for any youngster, and Jackie Cooper's sympathetic acting will appeal to the grown-ups as well.

Arlington A. A. Wins Two Games
Clearly demonstrating their superiority over the Barry Club of Cambridge by a 50-30 score on Monday night the Arlington A. A. showed that their class has at last been brought to light. The Barry Club with members of the Presentation Club of the Greater Boston League in their lineup were no match after the first half for the locals. The score at half time was 22-14 in favor of Arlington and from that point on Arlington's attack began to roll along with smoothness and matched by good scoring plays.

This brought the Big Red victory column up to 15 wins against one loss. Friery again was one of the big cogs in the A. A. machine and his scoring along with Driscoll and Calucci brought about the victory.

In another game played against Chelsea Y. M. H. A., at the Junior High East gym last Wednesday night, the A. A. won easily by the score of 46 to 28. Calucci, Driscoll and Friery were the big guns for the locals.

—The Classes of Laura Halli-sey's ballroom dancing will be held in Arlington on Friday night. It is the beginning of her new classes in this type of dancing and it is expected the idea will be very successful.

POINTS OUT RESULTS AND CRITICISM OF NRA

The second meeting in the series of Discussion Groups sponsored by the Men's Club of the First Universalist church and held at the close of the morning service was well attended.

Mr. Fielder, president of the club, announced the general topic for discussion as "National Affairs," and briefly traced the course of events since March 4, stating that we had been passing through a financial and economic revolution, the most outstanding movements of which had been the Bank Holiday and the NRA.

Mr. Higgins, a representative of the Boston office of the NRA was presented as the leader of the discussion. He mentioned the adverse criticism encountered by NRA from the start; how even children had sneered at it; how parents had laughed at them; how attempts had been made to evade its requirements; and how its upright and loyal exponent, Gen. Hugh Johnson, had been attacked by political opponents.

Emphasizing the non-partisanship of many men who are devoting so much time without pay to the cause of NRA, Mr. Higgins said that this is no time for politics, but a time for action just as in 1917. Then we had an enemy in the open; for the past year we have been fighting an invisible enemy; a mental enemy—fear.

The speaker admitted that NRA could not benefit every individual right away. With 12-500,000 people out of work, with financial and working conditions different in various parts of the country, and with 750 codes to be drawn up and signed, the problem could not be solved in a few months. Cooperation and patience are still essential to its success. However, Mr. Higgins cited many achievements already accomplished by NRA. In Metropolitan Boston 75,000 people have been put back to work, payrolls have been increased $950,000, and child labor and the sweatshop are being closed out.

Next Sunday noon State Senator Charles C. Warren and State Representatives Nelson B. Crosby and Hollis M. Gott will discuss Massachusetts legislative activities as they effect the citizens of Arlington.

Heights Tower Group Enjoys Costume Party

A large gathering of members and friends enjoyed the costume party, entertainment and dance of the Arlington Heights Tower Association last Tuesday evening in the Brackett School. The parade was a brilliant feature, with all sorts of bizarre costumes from Dr. and Mrs. Fu Manchu to Barnacle Bill the Sailor. Amos and Andy were there, along with Benjamin Franklin, beautiful Spanish señoritas, a 4 girls in unique and fetching gowns. Practically all showed merit and it was no easy task for the judges, John P. Wheeler of Lexington, Joseph Barry of Arlington and William Flynn of South Boston, to make their decisions. The prettiest costume selected was that worn by Esther Rasche who was dressed as a Dutch girl.

NEW RACKETY DISCOVERED

Chief of Police Archie F. Bullock issued a warning yesterday against a smooth-looking man who calls upon business men and claims acquaintance of the business man's son or daughter living in some other city. The racketeer then tells a sob story of his car having broken down and being repaired in a garage. He requests a loan to pay for the repairs. Much to his sorrow the business man discovers that the racketeer is not a friend of the family and prospects of a return on the loan vanish. If anyone is approached Chief Bullock requests him or her to engage in a conversation with the racketeer and in the meanwhile call the police. Otherwise such racketeers are hard to apprehend.

Former Local Resident Is Killed In Crash

Z. D. Granville, president of the Granville Aircraft Corporation of New York and Springfield, Mass., and designer of racing planes, was fatally injured on Monday when his plane went into a spin above Spartanburg Memorial Airport in South Carolina and crashed from about 70 feet.

Granville was flying a "Gee Bee" sportster, model E, which he designed.

He was reported to have been headed south on his way to New Orleans for the air races to be held there in connection with the opening of Shushan Airport and Mardi Gras.

Granville formerly lived in Arlington and had a large following of friends here. While here, he conducted a repair shop on Grove street. He left Arlington over a year ago to devote his time to designing.

St. Agnes' Church Boy Scouts Have Communion Breakfast

Troop Seven, Boy Scouts of America of St. Agnes' Church, received Holy Communion last Sunday morning at the 7 o'clock mass and then had a breakfast at Wyman's Tavern, after which the Troop charter for 1934 was presented to the church, the sponsoring institution.

Eagle Scout Leo Murphy acted as master of ceremonies. Council President, George W. Butters gave the scouts an inspiring talk. Troop Committeeman Geo. Snell accepted the Charter on behalf of the Church and Troop, which was presented by Scout Commissioner John J. Vantura. This was followed by the presentation of certificates to Mr. Snell, Scoutmaster George R. Wright, Assistant Scoutmasters George Snell, Jr., and Paul Kelly with complimentary citations. Leo Murphy was commended by the President on his award of the Eagle Silver Palm.

District Commissioner Al Woodward, pinch-hitting for Richard Howe, who is at present at the Baker House, of the Massachusetts General Hospital, presented certificates to Junior Assistant Scoutmaster Leo Murphy, Vincent Reardon, Jr., and Paul Snell, and one to Senior Patrol Leader to Joseph Ahern, Jr., also to Patrol Leaders Joseph Dimodica, Philip Waldron, Donald Snell and Francis Paton, who in turn presented the certificates to the members of their Patrol.

Richard Carey was invested as a Tenderfoot Scout and gave a brief talk.

Scoutmaster Wright explained the necessity of carrying out the request of the President of the United States of America, Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Heights Study Club Meeting

The Arlington Heights Study club met on Tuesday afternoon in Hanger Hall. After the usual business meeting, Mrs. E. M. White read a paper on the Italian Renaissance.

Mrs. Cyrus Dallin described the French Renaissance as a period of conflict between the religious feeling left over from the Middle Ages, and the later paganism, a regard for beauty in the outward forms but no inward beauty or spirituality, a conflict which was reflected in the art of the times.

Tea was served by the hospitality committee assisted by Mrs. J. Herbert Mead and Mrs. D. Fletcher Knight.

A. H. S. Alumni Association Enjoys Party

The Arlington Alumni Association held its second meeting at Wyman's Tavern on Wednesday evening, Feb. 14. After the evening's business was completed, the meeting was turned over to Joseph Lopez, local taxi driver who acted as a very amusing master of ceremonies. Following a few humorous stories, Kenneth "Able" Ghostlaw gave his version of the story of "Romeo and Juliet." Ray Fowler and his accordion were introduced as "Ray and Susie." Al Movsessian was called on to give a sales talk on "How to Sell Oriental Rugs" but he declined as he feared he would make too many sales.

George Arthur who was there with D. Charles, was called on amid rousing cheers to sing several popular songs. Harmonica and piano duets followed with a few old time dances. Laura Halley at the piano. The mailman came in with Valentines. Some of the members were called by unusual names and many received valentines from a mysterious "Daisy."

Delightful refreshments were served as those present sat in banquet style. A large cake baked and frosted in valentine colors by Kenneth Ghostlaw was cut by the president, Moe Movsessian. The first piece was given to Miss Margaret Murray who was celebrating her birthday Wednesday.

Knowing of your capacity as a construction engineer and your past experience upon the Board of Public Works.

In contact with you on several large construction projects, I know that you can serve the town better than the present member who is seeking reelection.

You will agree with me when I state that it would be impossible to eliminate the chaotic condition

I offer you my 100 percent support and ask all of my 1930 friends who have so kindly signed my nomination papers—my workers and all my comrades in the various Veterans Organizations to support and make possible your election as a Member of Board of Public Works.

I make these statements because I have always found you to be honest and broad minded and know that you will give the Town of Arlington and the residents a better administration than we have enjoyed for the past several years.

Very truly yours,

Mr. Ryan asks for a second term. He has proved himself to be a good administrator. In spite of a tremendous reduction in appropriation he has carried on the work of the Department with efficiency and intelligence, and every Department under his direction stayed within its appropriation.

New streets this year were constructed by Town Labor for $6,000 less than the estimated cost, resulting in the saving of that amount for the abutters on these streets.

Under his direction, money appropriated for the purchase of equipment was transferred to projects which gave more work to the unemployed.

He has consistently fought for the working man and was largely responsible for raising the funds for materials which made it possible to obtain CWA money from the Federal Government.

He is a man of the people. He has earned the right to a second term.
